

Tyndale Bookstore introduces used books buy back!

As students are keenly are, used books are one of the best alternatives to the high costs of new textbooks. To help facilitate the process of selling and buying used textbooks, we would like to make this option available to our students.

Beginning today, books will be accepted at the Tyndale Bookstore on a consignment basis and sold at a percentage of the bookstore price. The sale price is determined by the condition of the book: if the books show only minor wear and have no marks or highlights, it will be sold at 80% of the bookstore price. If they are highlighted, marked and “wounded,” they will be sold at 60% of the bookstore price. Students who consign their books receive 75% of the sale price when they sell. The bookstore retains 25% for commission and handling fees.

However, please note that we accept used books not “abused” books. Therefore we reserve the right to refuse damaged books, or books that are unlikely to be repurchased by other students. Keep your new books in good condition if you hope to sell them at a later date.

A month prior to the beginning of a semester, a book list will be posted on our website, www.tyndalebookstore.ca. This book list contains all the books being used for classes at both Tyndale UC, Tyndale Seminary, Modular Programs and B.Ed. during that semester.
